Bowling News

California's finest keglers expected to turn out for Bowl-O-Drome's first annual Handicap Singles Classic kicking-off this week-end, July 11th, and running Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays for five big week-ends. Open to both men and women, the local lanes first affair offers a $5,000 guarantee with an estimated $8,500 prize fund, $1,000 and trophy goes to the winner in the handicap division with $500 and trophy guaranteed for highest scratch total.

Entrants will roll five games across 10 lanes with an entry fee of $12.50 Handicap is 2/3 of 200, using highest known average of the 1957-58 season. If none, then current average for 21 games or more. Entry blanks are available at any bowling establishment.

Sunday afternoon's duel between Bowl-O-Drome's young fire-balls and Compton's teenage keglers was a toss-up all the way with Compton finally eking out a victory by a slim nine pins, 2852 to 2843. Series honors copied by Bowl-O-Drome's Lonnie Cole, tossing together a powerful 628 set, followed by Compton's hot-shots, Gary Castel at 613 and Bill Shumway at 603. Single effort honors went to anchor of the Bowl-O-Drome quintet, Dave Freeman who pitched a scorching 244 solo during the last game.

Linda's Cafe, leading the field in Monday night's mens' Commercial Handicap, one game over Longren A-C No. 1, Teds Auto, Longren A-C No. 2 and Livingston Jewelers, all hashing it out for the second place honors. Torrance Police, Local 1135 and the Civitan Comets, dead-locked for the number three position, two games out, followed by Mehrling & Hanson and the Rockets running fourth and only three games back of the leaders. B. Parvis of the Longren No. 1 whipped up a 624 & 78-702 to take the lead on the series scoreboard while B. Wade, Ted's Auto keglers soloed for a 279 & 10-289 scorching.

The American Cancer Society is not a permanent agency. It is organized and geared to meet a special health problem and will go out of business when the problem is solved, according to the Los Angeles County branch of ACS.

Where EAST Meets WEST!

Shown at right are just a few pieces from one of the most interesting furniture stores in all of Southern California. CALFRAN has long been known for its manufacture of the finest in Rattan furniture, including many original and exclusive designs.

Now—"East meets West." CALFRAN has begun the production of several unique and smartly styled MODERN lines... such as the "Punai," or Hawaiian Day Bed, and the "Beachcomber" series of lanai and patio furniture. Best of all—because CALFRAN manufactures both its Rattan and Modern lines—its prices are intentionally at least 20% to 30% under comparable furniture elsewhere. Come in and browse... it will be a worthwhile money-saving adventure!
